

May 16th 2018

Construction of the Central Japan International Airport's New Passenger Terminal Building

Central Japan International Airport Co., Ltd. is proud to announce the beginning of the construction works for the new terminal building. Even though there have been a continuation of related construction works, today, with the aim of inaugurate the terminal on the first half of 2019, the "Safety Ceremony for the construction of the new passenger terminal building" was conducted.

During the safety ceremony, Tomozoe Masanao, CEO of Central Japan International Airport Co., Ltd. declared that "the construction of the new terminal building is aspiring to an even more functional enhancement. From now on, Central Japan International Airport wants to respond to increasingly diversifying needs of the customers that have come along with the further expansion of the aviation network, the positive environment of incoming demand and, the airline promotion. Together with the neighbouring facilities, we want to contribute with the creation of new prospects to the regional development and expansion."

About the Safety Ceremony

1. Date: May 16th 2018 (Wednesday) from 10:30 to 11:10
2. Place: Tokoname-shi, Centrair 1. Expected construction place (Inside P3 parking)
3. Contents: Prayer and greetings to the parties concerned
4. Attendance:
(Organizer) Central Japan International Airport Co., Ltd. CEO Tomozoe Masanao
(Constructor) Shimizu Corporation Nagoya Branch Office Executive Director and Branch President Taniguchi Hiroaki
(Others) 42 other participants from the airport

Construction Outline:

- Inauguration: First half of 2019.
- Annual passengers: 4.5 million (National: 3 million; International 1.5 million)
- Structure: 2 stories, 2 areas (check in and concourse)
- Parking spots: 10 spots in total

For more information about the new terminal please check the following website : <http://www.centrair.jp/t2/en/>

