Meihinkan to reopen after renovation works

Central Japan International Airport is pleased to announce the reopening of Meihinkan on April 4th, 2021 after renovation works. Meihinkan is a store located on the 4th floor of Terminal 1 that carries a great variety of Japanese souvenirs such as famous confectioneries, local spirits, and other representative products of the Central Japan Region. The store has remain open during the renovation works operating in the form of stalls.

店舗イメージ

◆ Store overview

Name: Meihinkan

Location: 3rd floor of Terminal 1, Departure Lobby (Area: 428m^2 approximately)

Products: Special local products of the Central Japan and Tokai region

*Number of items: Approximately 1,600 items (increased by approximately 50 after renewal)

Opening date: April 9th, 2021 (Friday)

Business hours: 6:30 to 20:00 (open all year round)

*Subject to change due to COVID19.

New brands and limited-time products: "Coneri"* and "Kissaten ni koi shite."*

The store will be completely renovated for the first time since 2012. Changes after renewal include a new layout that will allow visitors to view the products more easily and a widening of the aisles, in consideration of the measures against infectious diseases. In addition, new in-store concierge staff will be assigned to recommend the most suitable products to customers. A promotion space will be included in the Western confectionery section, while the Japanese confectionery and the local sake and specialty section will be planned according to the seasons.

*Coneri: A new brand specialised in pies that was born to spread the deliciousness of pies. Coneri is a sub-brand of Shunkado, a Shizuoka eel pie brand. This is the second store in the Tokai area after the JR Nagoya Takashimaya store (Opened in October 2020).

*Kissaten ni koi shite. (Limited time): is a cream brulee tart brand born of the collaboration in between Hanako magazine and Grapestone a store famous for Tokyo Banana World.