

About New Shops in Terminal 1 in December

Central Japan International Airport is pleased to announce the opening of three new shops on the 3rd and 4th floors of Terminal 1 this December.

1) Komeda's Coffee shop *Opening on December 10, 2021 (Friday)

The Nagoya-born coffee shop opens its first shop at the airport. In addition to the famous Shiro-Noir (fluffy Danish pastries topped with soft ice cream) and Coffee blends, you can enjoy Nagoya's popular meals in a relaxing space.

2) CANADIAN MORNING & TOKO *Opening on December 22, 2021 (Wednesday)

The shop sells mainly outdoor brand backpacks and other miscellaneous goods such as T-shirts, hats, and mug bottles. Those products will suit customers who want to enjoy outdoor activities in places like the rich natural fields of Canada.

3) Sora no Onigiriya (Rice balls shop) *Opening on December 26, 2021 (Sunday)

It is the shop of rice balls carefully and fluffily made with its focus on ingredients such as rice, nori (seaweed), salt, and ingredients.
